

CHAPTER V

CLOSURE

In this chapter, conclusions will be drawn from the results of the research project and recommendations will be made.

A. Conclusion

Based on the findings and discussion of the research, it can be concluded that:

1. Kind of the principles in teaching young learners and the researcher see they are seven principles teaching English for young learners from twelve principles, (1) Offer learner enjoyable and active roles in learning experience. (2) Help the students develop and practice language through collaboration. (3) Provide clear goals and feedback on performance. (4) Present the task properly, application of better teaching method increases the motivation levels of the learners. (5) Develop a good relationship with the learner (6) Support and guide your students. (7) Create and encourage cooperative. Therefore, teacher of young learners should be aware of the different theories and method of teaching as well as the principles of learning.
2. The teacher understanding and apply the principles in teaching young learner although only seven principles are the teacher applied in the classroom, teacher use interesting technique and method as translation the material after the teacher explain, picture, song, games, spelling, example the real subject, and discussion the group work in the classroom and make they remind on memories about English.

The teacher procedures use by the teaching English are opening, while teaching and closing. That very step consistent of exploration, elaboration and confirmation. In the opening teacher greets and explain the material, while teaching the teacher give the main activity and the last closing the teacher closes the meeting by giving motivation why in here the teacher don't give homework because the school don't want to burned their students. The media used by the teacher are concrete object in the class surrounding, such as blackboard, marker, real object in the class and picture. The teaching learning process in SD Alam Muhammadiyah is line with principles TEYL.

A. Suggestion

The researcher hopes the research useful for the school, the teacher and the readers in general.

1. For the teacher

The teacher must be more deeps in teaching principles and also more creative in used media and method because the students are very creative in learning English in the classroom. It can be simulated the students to active used English language and teacher must understand about the principles teaching English for young learners in the classroom to easy your teaching, and the teachers should improve and increase their ability in English by using media to support and make the student interested the material.

2. For the other researcher

The researcher hopes that the result of this study can be used as the reference of the other researchers.