

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTIONS

A. Conclusion

After conducting the research and analyzing all the data about the techniques of teaching reading in Islamic Senior High School at SMIP 1946 Banjarmasin School Year 2018/2019, the researcher would like to conclude the result of study as follows:

1. The steps in teaching reading that was implemented by the teacher in the class such as by teaching how to read words properly and giving homework by translating the text and understanding it by themselves at home.
2. The problem that the teacher faces was about students ability, such as lack of vocabularies and low motivation in learning english. The solution in this problem the teacher tried to arrange the materials and motivated the students about the important of english lesson.

B. Suggestions

Based on the result of this research, the researcher would like to give some suggestions as follows:

1. The teacher should pay more attention to each student's understanding when learning English, particularly when they read an english text. The teacher should vary the approaches in teaching English in order to find out the most suitable one to apply in the classroom.

2. The students should pay more attention to their ability of their reading comprehension, because reading is really important to be mastered by them, as we know that in their English final examination mostly use reading skills.
