This section describes the findings of the research on taboo words uttered by the characters in Wild Child movie. From the analysis process, the total data collected in the research are 29 data and displayed in the table.

B. Discussion

In this section, the researcher discusses the findings in depth to answer the problem formulation stated in Chapter I. To provide a complete explanation, some data from the appendix are taken as the examples. This section consists of two parts. The first part is related to the types of taboo words in Wild Child movie, which is presented to answer the first formulation of the problem and the second part is about the functions of taboo words, which is presented to answer the second formulation. The discussion starts from the types of taboo words.

1. Types of Taboo Words

There are four types of taboo words produced by the characters in Wild Child movie. They are epithet, profanity, vulgarity, and obscenity. Each of them is explained one by one followed by some examples.

a) Epithet

Epithet becomes the most dominant type used by the characters in Wild Child movie. The writer finds 26 epithet words that occur during the conversation between the characters in Wild Child movie.

(Example 1)

00-51:52 – 00:52:00

Poppy : Hi!

Freddie: Hello, trouble. I like your hair.

Harriet: What are you doing? This is a themed costume party, not a dwarf prostitute's convention!

In this conversation, Freddie uses the taboo word “trouble” when he meet Poppy because he knew that she often make trouble everywhere. But he is fascinated by the Poppy’s appearance. While Harriet uses the taboo words “dwarf prostitute” when she talks to Poppy, she was very angry because Poppy’s costume is too hot and it makes all people feel surprise, especially Freddie. Aware of it, she expressed her jealous with say that phrase.

(Example 2)

01:24:51 - 01:25:07

Poppy: It all makes sense now. I knew it. I think I'm innocent.

Jane and Charlotte: We think so, too.

Harriet: You're not! You awful bitch! You've turned this school upside down. You've ruined everything. You started it. I only finished what you started!

The next description is the taboo word bitch that is spoken by Harriet means female dog or other animal of the dog family, the word bitch refers to derogatory a woman especially cruel and an unpleasant one, the word bitch also refers to unkind or bed tempered. However, in this conversation the utterance bitch is included taboo epithet

(Example 3)

00:17:06 - 00:17:29

Poppy: Hey, watch the shmere, girlfriend. Two hundred goals died for this.

Harriet: we meet again. How sublime. Learn the rules. When it comes to right of way, there is an hierarch. Teachers, perfects, scholars, dogs, vermin, Americans. Kate? See to it she falls in line.

In the conversation, the words are talked by Harriet to Poppy in the corridor of Abbey Mount School, when the time to study was break. She talks about the rule of school that must be obedient by Poppy.

The speaker of the phrase is Harriet. She was the leader of the Student Council at the Abbey Mount School. From the beginning, she did not like Poppy, because Poppy does not subject to her. Poppy became the center of attention of all students in the school. It all makes Harriet so angry and jealous. While they both met, Poppy and Harriet always fighting and insulting each other. Harriet says that American has position below a dog and vermin. It means the American's position is very low.

(Example 4)

The word is said by Poppy to Freddie when they got out of the party. Poppy deliberately planned it to be able to chat with both of his. So she can get close to Freddie.

00:54:22 - 00:54:38

Poppy: Okay. Leading lady, all boys at school, awkward with intimacy. Cards on the table. Are you gay?

(LAUGH)

Freddie: Just English. And I am sober and sensible, and you, my sweet friend are overexcited and concussed.

The speaker of the word is Poppy when she gapes with Freddie. The word “gay” is a person who has sex with the same sex. In this context, Poppy says it humorously because Freddie dodges when Poppy wanted to kiss him. The setting of the conversation is a quiet living room.

(Example 5)

This word is said by Harriet to Poppy. She talks about the hot Poppy’s costume. Harriet is so jealous because she gets all of Freddie’s attention. It makes her so angry.

00:51:52 - 00:52:00

Poppy: Hi!

Freddie: Hello, trouble. I like your hair.

Harriet: What are you doing? This is a themed costume party, not a dwarf prostitute’s convention!

The speaker of the word is Harriet, she was very angry because Poppy’s costume is too hot and it makes all of people feel so surprise, especially Freddie. He is fascinated by the Poppy’s appearance. Aware of it, she expressed her jealous feeling with say that phrase. The setting of that conversation in the party room, in a crowd.

The dialog in 5 examples above shows that the utterance is epithet. Epithet is characterized by the existence of several types of slurs, such as wop, raghead, bitch or fag. Other references that are included as epithet are connected to race, ethnicity, gender, sexuality, one's appearance, and disabilities such as nigger, and retard, motherfucker, tit-man (Batistella, 2005: 72).

b) Profanity

This word is said by Josie to Poppy. She talks about her ex-boyfriend. Josie shocks when she hear about Poppy's story.

00:19:35 - 00:19:55

Drippy: How many boys have you shagged?

Poppy: well, there was Brandon, eight-pack. Chase, Jock, Tyler. Bajillionaire, Derek, he was Kelly Slater's cousin.

Josie: Christ!

The taboo word in the sentence above is Jesus Christ. The name of Jesus is dealing with Christ where he is the God name of Christian people. From sample Jesus Christ is classified as taboo words means the feeling surprise. The utterance Jesus Christ is included as taboo words because Jesus Christ is religious include of word that should not be said in every places. However, Nick is shock when he looks Darby kill other prisoner. Based on the type's taboo words, the utterance Jesus Christ is classified as taboo words that included as taboo of profanity. The setting of that conversation is their bedroom.

c) Vulgarity

Vulgarity is different from the other two types above because it refers to words or expressions that contain sexual anatomy and excretory function in a rough manner such as ass, tit, ck, dick, and cunt. Vulgarity is believed to demonstrate the raw expression of street language. Therefore the use of vulgar language is usually to humiliate or bring down the thing or individual referred to.

In the findings, the writer finds 2 vulgar words that occur during the conversation between the characters in Wild Child movie. This type has the same amount as profanity which takes the second place. An example that shows vulgarity can be seen in the following conversation.

00:31:36 - 00:32:23

Poppy: Why would you do this for me? You think I am a total asshole.

Kate: No, you behave like an asshole. There is a difference. Look, I know that I'm not some Malibu therapist, but I can guess that you are feeling scared and a little bit homesick. In my experience, does not actually make you a bad person. Just a normal one. Sweet photo. Is it your mum? She is going to come out and visit?

In this conversation, Asshole in the sentence above is a word that classified as taboo word that include to taboo of vulgarity. The reason assholes classified as taboo vulgarity is assholes means a vulgarism to describe the anus, often pejoratively used to refer to people. Asshole is a bad word which is avoided in our society, because it can insult and make other people are shamed and angry. These utterances are taboo in our culture and include of bad words that should not be said in every places. From the sentence above, it means Poppy offended by Kate's utterance that regards her as a foolish girl. So that Poppy uses asshole to make sure to Kate whether she is like that.

d) Obscenity

Obscenity is described as a term which characterized sex differentiating anatomy or sexual and excretory function in a crude way such as fuck and shit. Obscenity and vulgarity have the same reference but both are different. In Wild Child movie, obscenity appears 2 times and presented below.

00:19:55 - 00:20:03

Poppy: I mean sick body, sick mind

Drippy: Shit! Kate!

Kate: Sorry, Drip. It looked lighter on the box.

2. Functions of Taboo Words

This section discusses the functions of taboo words uttered by the characters in Wild Child movie. The detailed explanations in this part answer the second research question stated in Chapter I. All four functions of taboo words, there are to draw attention to oneself, to show contempt, to be provocative and to mock authority are presented with some examples below.

a) To Draw Attention to Oneself

To draw attention to oneself appears 10 times in this research. This function can occur when someone utters a taboo word which has a strong connotation to gain the listener's attention. Moreover, by using strong and powerful language such as taboo word, the listeners will immediately respond to the speaker's utterance. Here are some examples to draw attention to oneself.

(Example 1)

00:02:58 – 00:03:00

Girl 2: There might be sharks.

Girl 3: Someone do something.

Poppy: Welcome to Malibu, bitch!

In this conversation, the dialogue was said by Poppy to her friends and her father's new wife, when she held a wild party at her house. Poppy plunged into the shallow sea and say welcome to her father's new wife. The speaker of the word is Poppy Moore, she says welcome to her new mother. Actually, her words are an expression of distaste because she never agreed her father get marry again. When she held a wild party, she expressed it to her friends trough plunge into shallow sea at her house.

b) To Show Contempt

To show contempt appears show contempt appears 15 times in this research. This function can occur when people utter taboo words to show their disrespect feeling toward the addressee. It can be said that the aim of the speaker is to offend their opposite pride because they feel that their opposite partners are completely worthless. To make the 56 definition clearer, there are three examples of this function that are explained one by one below.

(Example)

01:06:06 – 01:06:36

Poppy: What happened?

Her friends: Dear Ruby, you cannot imagine how retarded these idiots are. They are a bunch of ugly losers who think a mani-pedi is a Latin greeting. I despise these village idiots, but I have to pretend to like them so they will help me get out of this hell hole. I tried doing it on my own and it was impossible. Still, they are so thick they will never realize. I will be out of asylum by the end of term.

In this conversation, the word is said by Poppy to her friend who stays in America via email. She is Ruby. Poppy always try to communicate with her, so she have to go to computer room in the midnight. She felt She felt to be mad because all of girls at the Abbey Mount School are very outdated. They never pay attention to their appearance. Poppy tell all resentment in his heart to Ruby, her friend in the United States via email. Poppy does not enjoy staying at the school.

c) To be Provocative

To be provocative function takes the third position and it occurs once from the whole conversations in Wild Child movie. This function happens when a speaker utters taboo words to provoke a certain response from the listener such as violation or anger. The application of taboo words in someone's utterance is believed to be the most effective method for inviting a chaotic reaction. Therefore, some people tend to choose the employment of taboo words in their conversation to get the expected response from the listener. An example of to be provocative function is shown in the following conversation.

00:14:10 – 00:14:20

Matron: Three Sundays for everyone.

Josie: Thanks a lot for that, you utter moron.

Drippy: What are you, mental?

d) To Mock Authority

To mock authority function has the lowest frequency than other functions of taboo words and from 29 data, this function only appears once. This function can occur when people utter taboo words because they are not satisfied with public images such as the government and institutions. Therefore, they utter taboo words that are directed to mock authority in order to show their disbelief about governmental stuffs. To make the explanation clearer, there is an example of conversation which shows to mock authority function which is present below.

00:27:14 - 00:27:37

*Mrs. Kingsley: Well, my personal library seems to be missing the book version of Freaky Friday. So, perhaps you might try this* Poppy: Oh my uncle's producing the film version.

*Mrs. Kingsley: Alice in Wonderland was originally a book. You might surprise yourself and actually enjoy it.*

Poppy: This is my punishment? This school is so weird.

In conversation, Mrs. Kingsley says that Poppy have to read about Alice in Wonderland book as her punishment, while Poppy does not like reading.

There are four types of taboo words; there are epithet, profanity, vulgarity, and obscenity. All of them appear in conversations spoken by the characters in the movie.

In term of types of taboo words in Wild Child movie, epithet is employed 10 times, and this number hugely different from other types. Epithet becomes the most frequent type used by the character because it is considered to the most effective to way insult someone.

As for the functions of taboo words, to show contempt becomes the most dominant function found in Wild Child movie because taboo words can be best expression to show disrespect toward other people since they are directed and aimed to hurt the opposite. In wild child movie, the characters utter taboo words when they want to show their dislike toward someone. Then, to emphasize their disrespect, taboo word is chosen as the best way to express their feeling. Meanwhile, to mock authority function becomes the least to occur in Bad Teacher movie. This function only appears once in the movie because actually the theme of the movie is a teenager in Senior High School which is not concerned in criticizing governmental stuffs.
