

CHAPTER V

CLOSURE

A. Conclusion

In this chapter, the researcher concludes all the research which answers the problem statements. According to the finding of the research about analyzing the intercultural communication problems and adaptation which is conducted by the researcher, she found the problems and how to adapt it.

The exchange students find that intercultural communication give they more experience in communication when they in other cultures. Some of the problems faced by exchange students such as stereotype, language barrier, and culture shock.

Meanwhile, several ways are done by the exchange students to adapt such as empathy, develop communication flexibility, study the culture, make a personal relationship with the host, participate in cultural activities.

B. Suggestion

Based on the result of the research, finding, discussion, and conclusion the researcher would like to give some suggestions as follows:

1. The researcher suggests to future researchers who are interested in conducting the same fields to use other theories that can support the theory which the researcher already used.

2. The researcher suggests to future exchange students to learn about the country to be visited before visiting the country.
3. The researcher suggests to AFS who are organized exchange students to give some lessons about the culture of the country.

The researcher realizes that this research is still far from being perfect, so criticism and suggestions from the readers are expected to make it perfect. Hopefully, it will be useful for the readers especially for the lectures and students of the English Education Department of UIN Antasari Banjarmasin. Finally, the researcher hopes that this research can be used as a reference for those who are interested in intercultural communication.
