

CHAPTER V

CLOSURE

A. Conclusion

In this chapter, the researcher concludes all the research which answers the problem statements. According to the finding of the research about analyzing the developing English skill through intercultural friendship and types of communication that participant used to communicate.

1. Intercultural friendship develop college students English skills by exchanging information and solving some problems by intensively communicating among them, using English as a media of communication
2. Kinds of communication the students use to develop their English skills is verbal communication, both written and spoken
3. Kinds of language skills can be developed through intercultural friendship are speaking and writing.

B. Suggestion

The researcher suggests to future researchers who are interested in conducting the same fields to use other theories that can support the theory which the researcher already used. The researcher realizes that this research is still far from being perfect, so criticism and suggestions from the readers are expected to make it perfect.

Hopefully, it will be useful for the readers especially for the lectures and students of the English Education Department of UIN Antasari Banjarmasin that trying to started the friendship with the foreigners. Finally, the researcher hopes that this research can be used as a reference for those who are interested in intercultural friendship.