This study aims to reveal the lives of polygamous marriages between habibs with ahwal women in Banjar district. This study uses a qualitative approach.

Data collection is done through interview, observation and documentary techniques. The study results indicate that create a harmonious polygamous marital life between the habibs and women; they interact and communicate, their lives are peaceful, and there is a loving and affectionate relationship between wives and husbands. Polygamous marriages performed without the and of first are harmonious; often between the wives because they compete against each other to gain control over their husband's love and affection, which eventually leads to divorce. © 2021 Kasetsart University.
