

ABSTRACT

Rian Chandra: Indigenous Marriage in Rampa Village, North Laut Island District, Kotabaru Regency. Under the guidance of: Dr. Hj. Gusti Muzainah, SH., MH, supervisor II:Dr. H. Fathurrahman Azhari, M.H.I, Postgraduate at UIN Antasari Banjarmasin (2021)

Keywords: Shape, Background, Wedding, Rampa Village

Kota Baru Regency contributed to the divorce rate in 2019 at 450 divorce cases, although it is not high, but this is the number recorded through the religious courts, couples who settle their marriages in court, of course, many couples who complete their marriages outside the religious court, Rampa Village, North Laut Island District, Kotabaru Regency, divorce in the middle of the Rampa village community is unique and concerning. This early marriage has even become a trend for the people of the village of Rampa but unfortunately the marriage did not last long because one of the factors is the immaturity of each partner, divorce occurs at a very young age.

There are cases of divorce at an early age and then "cross" marriages between divorced couples, this sort of thing becomes commonplace in society, the sacredness of marriage is lost and marriage is like something that just doesn't make people more responsible, more mature and marriage does not become a means of piety. to Allah SWT.

Based on these problems, he was interested and felt the need to know what the underlying problems were behind the rise of divorce in Rampa Village, North Laut Island District, through a thesis research entitled "Form and Background of Marriage in Ramp Village, North Laut Island District, Kotabaru Regency". This research is a field research. This research is a descriptive qualitative research, namely research that describes and outlines the main problems studied proportionally. Research on the Form and Background of Marriage in Ramp Village, North Laut Island District, Kotabaru Regency is a field study that uncovers the basic problems of the social phenomenon of marriage and divorce which seems to be a common thing in Rampa Village, North Laut Island District, Kotabaru Regency.

The results of the study concluded, the form of marriage that occurred in Rampa Village, Pulau Laut Utara District, Kota Baru Regency was early marriage or underage marriage, the age of marriage stipulated by the marriage law, but what distinguishes is the frequency or quantity of marriage at an early age accompanied by the high rate of divorce for young couples and not through marriage at the KUA. Another form of marriage in Rampa Village is marriage for partners, meaning that a partner is found, say A and B, who then divorced, then in another couple there was a couple C and D, which Also divorced, then Couples A and D got married and Couples B and D also got married, and such marriages are common in Rampa Village, but are often hidden by the local community, for various reasons. As for the reasons behind the high rate of early marriage and divorce in Rampa Village, first, it is based on habits that continue to occur in Rampa Village. Second, what is also the reason behind early marriage and high divorce in Rampa Village is the low level of education of the Rampa community, Third, which becomes The background of the high early marriage and high divorce rate in the village of Rampa is the existence of a religious doctrine that they understand, that marrying young is part of the Islamic religion.