Students' emotion is one of significant aspects that could not be ignored in teaching learning activity especially in distance learning. This research aimed to answer the emotional geographies encountered by English Education students and how they overcome the emotional geographies in distance learning during the pandemic covid-19.

A case study was used in this research. The participants of this study involved 10 English Education students of Antasari State Islamic University Banjarmasin who lived in rural area. Furthermore, the data were collected through interview, then analysed by doing data reduction, encoding, data display (classifying and analyzing), and drawing conclusions.

The results showed that the English Education students encountered five emotional geographies, they were physical geography, moral geography, sociocultural geography, professional geography and political geography. Furthermore, the English Education students overcome the problem of emotional geographies such as physical geography, politic geography, and moral geography. They tried to look for other places to study if their houses was not conducive enough to study. The problem of internet and quota was also can be solved since the campus had already provide the quota for students.

Kata Kunci: Geografi Emosional, Pembelajaran Jarak Jauh, Mengatasi

Emosi siswa merupakan salah satu aspek penting yang tidak bisa ditinggalkan dalam kegiatan belajar mengajar khususnya pada pembelajaran jarak jauh. Penelitian ini bertujuan untuk menjawab geografi emosional yang dihadapi oleh mahasiswa Pendidikan Bahasa Inggris dan bagaimana mereka mengatasi geografi emosional dalam pembelajaran jarak jauh selama pandemi covid-19.

Studi kasus digunakan dalam penelitian ini. Para peserta penelitian ini melibatkan 10 mahasiswa Pendidikan Bahasa Inggris Universitas Antasari Islam Negeri Banjarmasin yang tinggal di daerah pedesaan. Selanjutnya data dikumpulkan melalui wawancara, kemudian dianalisis dengan melakukan reduksi data, penyajian, penyajian data (mengklasifikasikan dan menganalisis), dan penarikan kesimpulan.

Hasil penelitian menunjukkan bahwa siswa Pendidikan Bahasa Inggris menghadapi lima geografi emosional, yaitu geografi fisik, geografi moral, geografi sosio kultural, geografi profesional, dan geografi politik. Selanjutnya, mahasiswa Bahasa Inggris mengatasi masalah geografi emosional seperti geografi fisik, geografi politik dan geografi moral. Mereka mencoba mencari tempat lain untuk belajar jika rumahnya tidak cukup kondusif untuk belajar. Masalah internet dan kuota juga bisa teratasi karena kampus sudah menyediakan kuota untuk mahasiswa.
