

CHAPTER V

CLOSURE

A. Conclusion

The last chapter presented the conclusion that were derived trough analyzed and discussed which had conducted in the previous chapter. The conclusion intended the answer of research questions as mention in the first chapter.

Based on the analysis and identifying the data “Your English Partner”, the researcher would like to draw the conclusion of this research. To answer the research question, what thematic progression patterns apply in English Reading Text of book “Your English Partner Unit 1-4”. Thematic progression itself is a pattern that arranged by theme and rheme in each clause. The thematic progression in this research intends to thematic progression patterns in the English textbook and the researcher classified the pattern based on Eggins theory. The researcher found there are all type of Thematic Progression by Eggins and identified Constant Thematic Progression (CTP), Simple Linear Progression (SLP), and the last Split Rheme Progression (SRP).

B. Suggestions

The suggestions are present a better expect improvement for author book and future researchers with the related research. After presenting the results of this study, the researchers would like to make some suggestions.

1. For the author

The researcher hopes that the author will develop the text book. The researcher found some unnecessary punctuation that existed in the English textbook so the developer can review the book in the next edition. As for the English text, the book provided clear image as for the related text.

2. For the future Researcher

The researcher suggests the future researcher can conduct in the similar research with the other type of text that it could be journal or speech text.
