

CHAPTER V

CLOSURE

In this chapter the researcher present the cunclosion and sugestion based on the analysis done in the previous chapter. It covers the main point of the research and the researcher also provide some suggestions for readers who want to do research on a similar subject. This correlate with the tittle “The English Textbook Use For Young Learner Entitled “Fun With English” For Grade 3 Of Elementary School”.

A. Conclusion

Based on the research result “The English Textbook Use For Young Learner Entitled “Fun With English” For Grade 3 Of Elementary School”. It can be conclude that:

1. The material in the textbook was relevant to the theory of criteria of 2013 English curricullum for grade 3 elementary school state by Kementarian pendidikan dan kebudayaan
2. The textbook have four characteristics (Free Space, Age Appropriate Material, Well Balanced Textbook Design, Textbook Storyline) from five characteristics good textbook quality for the learners and it suitable with the learners need in studying English on their grade and it can be improve learners in having fun activities for studying English. The main purposes of the textbook are to invite learners to learn English through fun activities using simple language so that it is easy to understand by learners.

B. Suggestion

The English textbook entitled “Fun with English” for grade 3 of elementary school is designed in such a way that even an inexperienced teacher be able to use it effectively. Suggestion on how to use the book or what teaching and learning activities to choose is provide in a separate unit in the textbook with clearly instruction explained. However, different activities in the textbook can also be used to enhance the development of the learners skills in studying English and to make the learners having fun and enjoy the learning proces.