

CHAPTER V

CLOSING

A. Conclusions

Based on the results of research related to waqf signs of surah Yâsîn in Yasin Burdah Book (amount analysis and its effect on the understanding of verses), the authors draw the following conclusions:

1. The Indonesian Standard Mushaf has 53 waqf signs, but Yasin Burdah's book contains 30 signs of waqf. There are 20 similarities between the waqf sign and 16 details in the middle of the verse and four at the end of the verse. Meanwhile, the difference between the two waqf signs is 33, with 16 details in the middle and 17 at the end of the verse.
2. The factors that cause differences between Yasin Burdah's book and the Indonesian Standard Mushaf are found in the reference source. The Indonesian Standard Mushaf is guided by the book 'Ilal al-Wuqûf' by Muhammad ibn Taifur al-Sajawandi in determining the waqf sign. Whereas Yasin Burdah's book has multiple references, the first is al-Imdâd fî Aurâdi Ahli al-Widâd published by PT. AL ZAHRA Sekumpul Martapura; second, Risâlah 'Amaliyah' from Inayah bookstore; third, Sûrah Yâsîn wa al-Wâqi'ah wa al-Mulk Sekumpul published by Nurul Hidayah; and fourth, the internet.
3. The writer has described the implications of differences in waqf sign on the grammar and understanding of the meaning of the verse using four example of sample verses, including Q.S. Yâsîn/36: 19, Q.S. Yâsîn/36: 33, Q.S. Yâsîn/36: 35 and Q.S. Yâsîn/36: 57.

B. Suggestions

The author wishes every publisher who wants to print amaliah books in which there are several surahs of the Qur'an, they should collaborate with the Indonesian Standard Lajnah Pentashihan Mushaf al-Qur'an. That way the upcoming amaliah books will be printed as the standards of the Indonesian Standard Mushaf al-Qur'an.

This research just focused on the sign of the surah Yâsîn. To future researchers, the authors suggest examining aspects other than waqf signs, such as rasm, vowel, and punctuation for surah Yâsîn in Yasin Burdah's book. In addition, the author also recommends researching other surahs of the Qur'an which are contained in other amaliah books that are widely circulated in society.
