

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION

This section presents the research results and recommendations. The conclusions answer the research questions, as well as recommendations for improving teachers, prospective teachers, and related research.

A. Conclusion

Based on the research question, the conclusion of this research can be stated as below:

1. The translation methods that used in translating Ibnu Battuta story book consist of: Word-for-Word Translation, Literal Translation, and Free Translation.
2. For the translation procedures that the translators used in translating Ibnu Battuta story book are: Transposition, Modulation, Naturalization and Contextual Conditioning.

B. Suggestion

After the explanation of the result and the conclusion, there are some suggestion that researcher explain as below:

1. English department students/Translator.

The researcher hopes that this research can be a guideline while they are need a method or a procedures in translating something. They are so many kinds of translation, so, they are have no worry making a mistake in translating.

2. The next research

The researcher suggests that further research be conducted on the same topic about translation, in translation there are so many area that can be used as a research topic such as translation method, translation strategies and translation procedures and also the researcher can conduct the research about the challenges in doing translation.