

CHAPTER V

CLOSURE

A. Conclusion

Based on the findings and discussion of the data that has been reviewed above, the researcher found that assessment based on the merdeka curriculum, namely (diagnostic, formative and summative) has been applied in the seventh grade English book 'English For Nusantara'. In each English skills, namely (reading, listening, speaking, and writing), it already contains an assessment based on the merdeka curriculum. In diagnostic assessment, assessment is found through reviewing the difficulties or problems being experienced by students and planning further action efforts to resolve problems or difficulties. Diagnostic assessment through mind mapping, face to face practice, writing down what students know. In formative assessment, many assessments are found through daily assignments, presentations, projects and quizzes. While in summative assessment, assessment is found through tests, practice and projects.

B. Suggestion

Based on the findings and discussion of the research, the researcher would like to set out several suggestions, namely:

1. For Publisher

Seeing from the analysis results of the merdeka curriculum assessment on English language skills, there are still some that are not listed, publishers could complete the summative assessment section on listening and speaking skills. Because summative assessment on listening and speaking skills is also very important in improving students' English language skills.

2. For Teachers

The results of this study are very useful to provide accurate information to teachers on how to assess the merdeka curriculum on English language skills contained in the seventh grade textbook 'English For Nusantara'. This study also provides information to teachers that the book has met the assessment criteria based on the merdeka curriculum. Thus, teachers could evaluate appropriate and inappropriate assessment in the 'English For Nusantara' textbook.

3. For Future Researchers

The results of this research are very useful for providing good information about English skills assessment in the English book of seventh grade of 'English For Nusantara' for research in general. This research would give other people an idea for those who want to investigate the topic about assessment, merdeka curriculum or course book. Therefore this research would be useful information in the future.
