

CHAPTER V

CLOSURE

A. Conclusion

Based on the results of research and discussion of student strategies in overcoming speaking problems in English speaking performance, it can be concluded as follows:

1. The problems faced by students in English speaking performance are three, namely the lack in vocabulary, lack of grammar and also lack of pronunciation.
2. There are four strategies used by students in overcoming speaking problems in English speaking performance, namely asking friends for help, asking the teacher to correct their pronunciation, switch to the native language of Indonesian and English and using body language when they have difficulty using vocabulary in English and Use a simple word.

B. Suggestion

There are several suggestions that the author can give regarding the results of this study, namely as follows:

1. Teachers can hold regular pronunciation practice sessions, using tools such as audio recordings or language learning apps. Using phonetic methods can help students understand how to pronounce words correctly.
2. Students are advised to practice speaking regularly, both with peers and with family members. Talking about topics they are interested in can make practicing more fun.
