

CHAPTER IV

CLOSURE

This chapter contains conclusion and suggestion of the study. The conclusions section present the results of the analysis conducted in the previous chapter. This chapter ends with suggestions for further research on literature studies.

A. Conclusion

Finally, this research study has successfully answered the research question as follow:

After the writer analyzed this novel the writer can conclude that the novel Little Women by Louisa May Alcott have some content of the informal education. They are patience, wise, kindness, independence and love. Patience has 4 examples, wise has 2 examples, kindness has 2 examples, and both of independence and love has 2 examples.

B. Suggestion

1. The writer suggests English learners to read English novel for learning English especially like informal education of the novel. Thus, you can get a lot of view, you can get vocabulary and the most important is you can get you language.
2. The writer suggest to English learner to read English novel more because English novel can increase our mind and knowledge.
3. The lecturers of English Department of IAIN Antasari Banjarmasin should have taught more about English literature and all related to this. It will surely improve the student knowledge regarding this matter.
4. This research is still far from perfection, therefore, the writer hope for further researcher could explore deeper and improve it better.