

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

A. Conclusion

After data had been collected, classified and analyzed conclusion were drawn as this following:

From the data analysis of chapter 3, the writer classified Modal Verbs are ten modal verbs and the meanings are twelve.

1. The modal verb in warm bodies movie are can, could, have to, will, should, must, need to, might, and may.
2. The meaning of modal verbs in warm bodies are can (ability, informal polite request, and impossibility), could (past ability, polite request, suggestion, certainty, impossibility), would (polite request, polite for "want"), have to (necessity, lack of necessity), will (certainty, willingness, and polite request), should (advisability, certainty), must (strong necessity, prohibition, certainty), need to (necessity and no necessity), might (certainty, polite request), and may (polite request, certainty).
3. The modal verbs "can" is the dominant modal verb use by Warm Bodies Movie.

The modal verbs "can" the most dominant modal verb in the movie. It implies that modal verb "can" has a great role in the movie.

Warm Bodies Movie mainly uses the statement of ability, impossibility, past ability, suggestion, certainty, advisability, necessity, willingness, polite request. It is mean that Warm Bodies mainly used meaning in communicating each other in the movie.

B. Suggestion

In relation to the conclusion above, suggestion are drawn as follow:

1. For the students, it's better for them to enrich their knowledge in communication by using Modal verb it's suggested for them to analyze the theory of modal verb widely in order to make a further research about modal verb.
2. The readers, who are interested to do the study about modal verbs especially in movie are suggested to analyze the problem more detail in order to develop the analyze of modal verb widely.
3. It's suggested for other researcher to make a detail analysis of modal verbs in other movies or another field, such as dialogue in television, radio, advertisement and newspaper.