

CHAPTER IV

CONCLUSION

A. Conclusion

Characteristics of women's speech that researcher found 9 (nine) characteristics in Pitch Perfect movie. There are politeness, hedging, tag question, declarative with interrogative intonation, extended vocabulary, empty adjective, correct grammar and intonation, and direct quotation. The writer found that there are 58 expressions appropriate with the theory. It found after analyzing and discussing characteristics of women's speech in Pitch Perfect movie by theory of Lakoff.

The researcher found out the most frequently used expressions in Pitch Perfect movie is politeness. Politeness appears in Pitch Perfect movie 16 (sixteen) times during the movie going on.

B. Suggestion

The researcher suggests for the reader are:

1. the reader should understand about characteristics of women's speech. If we know about characteristics of women's speech, we will understand how to be speech's excellent with women in doing communication in certain situation or learn with they how to be speech more polite and grammatically.

2. Watching an English movie helps students to develop their linguistic abilities with English language, as well as introduces to aspects of English-speaking countries' lives and cultures.
3. Films provide a rich repository for discussing custom, history and music in the target language. Watching film is not that entertainment course, it is a language course.
4. Watching movie is not merely a passive activity. The task involves students encompass the four skills of reading, writing, speaking and listening. Moreover, the task enables students to sharpen their ability to have a guess and interpretation.
5. Compared to textbooks, films are excellent in presenting clear demonstrations of non-verbal communication, etc.