

CHAPTER V

CLOSURE

A. Conclusion

Based on the explanation on chapter IV, it is concluded that:

1. The total number of students' errors is 1643 of 31 students. The mean of score is 53 that are categorized into "fair error".
2. The students' common errors in pronouncing stress of English words are in Penult. The total number of students' common errors in Penult is 717.
3. The students' common stressing in pronouncing stress of English words is in Ult (the last syllable). There is 1072 stressing. It is more 452 stressing in Ult. The students' common stressing in pronouncing stress of sentences is also in Ult. There is 592 stressing. It is more 437 stressing in Ult. The total common stressing in Ult is 1664. The total stressing in Ult must be 775.

B. Suggestion

Based on the result of this research, the researcher recommends the following:

1. The third semester students especially Hulu Banjarese students have to improve their pronunciation of English words stress. They have to be diligent to listen and pronounce English words in right stressing. It can improve their pronunciation skill. Therefore, they can pronounce stress of English words correctly.

2. The teacher who teaches pronunciation subject has to do the best for developing English teaching and learning process by performing the best technique and using media to increase their pronunciation skill.