

CHAPTER IV

CLOSURE

A. Conclusion

Based on the result of the analysis before, the researcher pointed out this study to the following conclusions. The figurative language from some of poems is important to us know because figurative language is not to make poetry confusing, but to make it clear.

1. The figurative language and meaning are that in the selected poems.

Kind of figurative language which are found of every poem as the :

- (1) Solitude : Personification, Methapor
- (2) I Love You : Personification
- (3) As Yo Go Through Life : Symbole
- (4) Life's Scars : Irony
- (5) The Fish : Simile Methapor
- (6) Ah, Are You Digging On My Grave : Irony, Synecdoche, Hyperbole, Personification, Methonymy
- (7) The Man He Killed : Methapor, Simile, Irony, Hyperbole, Synecdoche
- (8) I Look Into My Glass : Methapor
- (9) The Workbox : Irony
- (10) The Voice : Methapor
- (11) The Sun Rising : Personification Hyperbole
- (12) The Flea : Methapor
- (13) Death, be not proud : Personification, Methapor, Synecdoche
- (14) The Canonization : Methonymy
- (15) The Bait : Methapor.

In some of poems the dominant meaning of figurative language used in 15 poems are about death and sadness.

2. The theme carried by the poems of Wheeler Wilcox, Thomas Hardy and John Donne's selected poem.

The theme of every poem is found at the poems, those are : (1) Solitude is Cruelty of humanity (2) I Love You is Love, Happiness (3) As You Go Through Life is Don't look for the flaws as you go through life (4) Life Scars is Pain of Love (5) The Fish is Valuable things can be found in unexpected places (6) Ah, Are You Digging On My Grave is Death (7) The Man He Killed is War (8) I Look Into The Glass is Growing aware of Age (9) The Drummer Hodge is Saddened (10) The Voice is Saddened (11) The Sun Raising is Love (Romantic) (12) The Flea Is Marriage (13) Death, be not proud is Death is not the mighty and dreadful (14) The Canonization is Crossed Love (15) The Bait is Mystery of Love.

And the dominant theme in all poems the writer analysis about Love.

3. The messages are found in the poems through understanding figurative language used in the selected poems by Wheeler Wilcox, Thomas Hardy and John Donne

Message is stated as conveyed in speech or writing from one person to one or more other people, the message may not always be stated in verbal form but can be conveyed by other means, e.g. wink, and gestures.

Message or purpose is the thing that encourages poets to create poetry.

The message of every poem is found out such dominant are (1) Sadness
(2) Joy.

B. Suggestion

On the basis of the findings of the study, the researcher wants to give some suggestions in order to make better improvement in analyzing the kinds of figurative language

1. English teacher, can indirectly improve the ability of student in English skill such as vocabulary, grammar, reading, and writing skill. Therefore, the teacher can be used the literature especially poetry as references in teaching and learning English.
2. English learners, to read and expand the knowledge of the literature especially on figurative language , because generally it looks easy to learn but with a little knowledge about it, it will be hard to understand.
3. Future researchers, can continue to get other topics of poems which has not been discussed yet.