

CHAPTER V

CLOSURE

A. Conclusion

The purposes of this research are to know the capitalization errors made by the sixth semester students of English Education Department in summarizing articles and the most common capitalization error made by the sixth semester students of English Education Department in summarizing articles at IAIN Antasari Banjarmasin.

After conducting the research and getting the data as well as analyzing the data, the writer then concludes that the results of study are as follows:

1. The capitalization errors made by the sixth semester students in summarizing articles dealt with the following aspects:
  - a) The first word in a sentence including the first word of a direct quotation
  - b) Abbreviations and acronyms formed from the first letters of words
  - c) Proper noun for names of people and their titles
  - d) Proper noun for names of specific groups of people (nationalities, races, and ethnic groups), languages, and religions
  - e) Proper noun for names of specific places on a map
  - f) Proper noun for names of specific organizations (government agencies, businesses, schools, clubs, and teams)

- g) Proper noun for first, last, and all important words in the titles of books, magazines, newspapers, etc
  - h) Wrong capitalization (the letter should not be written in capital letter but it is written in capital letter)
  - i) The habit in writing F and I letters in capital letter.
2. The most capitalization error made by the sixth students in summarizing articles was the first word in a sentence including the first word of a direct quotation.

B. Suggestions

Based on the discussion and conclusion above, the writer formulates some suggestions as follows:

1. Students of English Education Department must pay attention to all aspects to make a good writing, including small thing like capitalization. Although it does not affect the meaning of writing, capitalization remains to be done correctly.
2. Lecturers of English Education Department should teach more thoroughly and explain to the students that they should write according to the rules that have been specified, one of which is the capitalization.
3. The researcher recommended for doing further research about the factors that can make students did capitalization errors deeply.