

CHAPTER V

CLOSURE

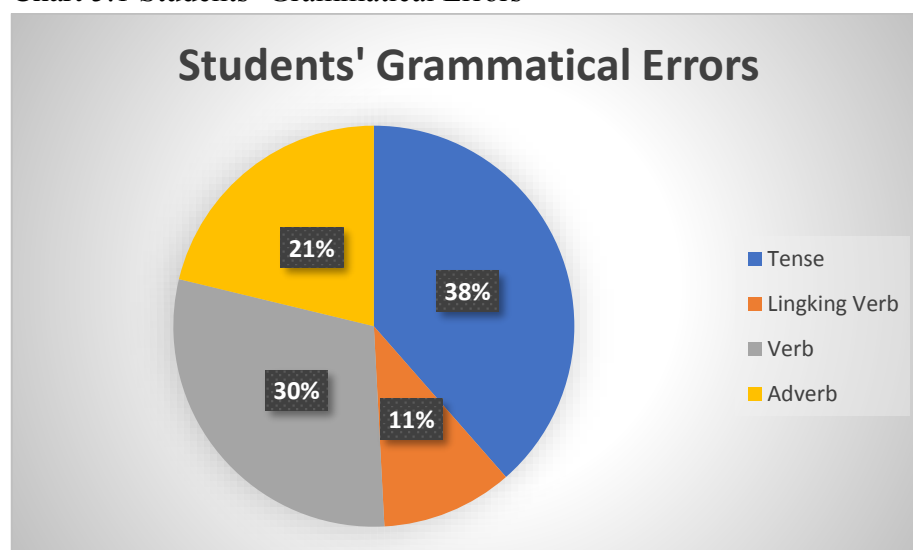

A. Conclusion

The research conclusion is presented according to the data which have been described in the previous chapter. From all the data described about the grammatical errors in speaking at Language Association, it can be concluded that:

1. The Students' Grammatical errors in speaking at Language Association of Al-Falah Islamic Boarding School Banjarbaru, South Kalimantan consist of the following (based on the types chosen). The students of Language Association made errors on:
 - a) Tense was 69 times,
 - b) Linking verb (to be) was 19 times
 - c) Verb was 53 times, and
 - d) Adverb was 38 times.

Form the data above, it could be concluded that students' grammatical errors on tense was the highest one. it was 69 times, and if the total of the errors were showed by chart, it could be (1) tense = 38%, linking verb = 11%, verb = 21%, and adverb = 30%.

Chart 5.1 Students' Grammatical Errors

- The most common students' grammatical errors in speaking at Language Association of Al-Falah Islamic Boarding School Banjarbaru, South Kalimantan was on tenses. It was 69 times, or it was up to 38%.

B. Suggestion

Grammatical error in speaking is one of the processes that usually happen in learning English. However, the students cannot be good speaker instantly. By this research, it's hoped there's a way to answer the problem, so that the students at Language Association of Al-Falah Islamic Boarding School become good speaker in the future.

Here, the writer gave some suggestions for students that hoped become good speaker, such as first, find more effective way in learning English. Of course, every person need his own way in learning. That's way you have to find your own way in learning. Second, don't afraid making mistake. Everyone is making mistake in everything, in life, when making a decision, and of course in English. Making mistake is very valuable. Because of it, we know what we have to do for the next. The most important thing is to try it more and more. If you are sure, you can ask to another person or even your teacher, and you can always them. Third, don't learn alone, don't talk to the mirror. It doesn't make sense if you talk to yourself. Which make benefit for you is a conversation. It's very important to you to talk to another person. So that way, you are going to learn new word, phrases, etcetera from each other. Fourth, sharing is one way to learn and correct your mistakes