

CHAPTER V

CLOSURE

In this chapter, the researcher give explaining about the conclusion of result thesis and give suggesstions. The conclusion is intended to answer the research questions of this research. The suggestion is given for lecturers, students, and further research.

A. Conclusions

Based on the researh result, the writer can conclude the errors commonly made by the fifth semester English Department students in changing active voice to passive voice and the types of error commonly made by the fifth semester English Department students in changing active voice to passive voice in each tense, such as Simple Present Tense, Simple Past Tense, Present Perfect Tense, Simple Future Tense, and Present Continuous Tense as follows :

1. the errors common made by the fifth semester English Department students at UIN Antasari Banjarmasin, The error of ‘be’ is most errors among misformation classification.
2. The most type errors in changing Active Voice to Passive Voice in each tense is Present Perfect Tense.

B. Suggestions

Based on the findings of the research, the researcher would like to propose the following suggestions:

1. The lecturer must be creative in teaching learning English and make students comfortable in the class like using funny techniques.
2. The lecturer should be selective in indicating the errors, finding the solution, and creating a remedial teaching which is free from the previous errors.
3. The students should do more practice and study in order to decrease the students lack of knowledge and understanding of the grammatical rules.
4. The students should study the material intensively, repeatedly, and toughly.
5. The further researcher could make this paper as references for future research.