

CHAPTER V

CLOSURE

1.1 Conclusion

In this chapter, the researcher concludes all the research which answers the problem statements. Based on the findings of the research “Investigate The Content Areas Of English Department Students In Online Reading Activities”, which was done through observation and interview, the researcher gave the conclusion.

According to the research about the content areas of English Department Students in online reading activities. Students of English Department choose to open the things they like on the internet. because it can entertain them when they are bored or free time. they can also use the opportunity to develop their English. It makes them enjoy learning English more by combining what they love with English. Doing online reading activities is more fun because they can do it anywhere. and in this day and age, many people cannot get away from their cellphones and are always taken anywhere.

1.2 Suggestion

Considering the conclusion above and result of this research, the researcher would like to give some suggestion for all participants from English Department Students and also for the readers, that in reading something you like can help also develop other potential. And of course, can get other information. Especially for English students, reading something that uses English can help us to develop our English by knowing new vocabulary, new phrases, as well as recognizing the use of grammar tenses. And of course, as a phone and internet user, be wise in using the online system itself by choosing materials that can help you entertain you, relate to your hobbies, and also develop your potential.
