

CHAPTER V

CLOSURE

This chapter would be present conclusion and suggestion about pre-service teacher of Madrasah Ibtidaiyah teacher education students' problems in teaching English for young learner and the solution provided to be able to solve the problems for pre-service teacher of Madrasah Ibtidaiyah teacher education.

A. Conclusion

After doing the research and analyzing the data about the problems faced by pre-service teacher of Madrasah Ibtidaiyah teacher education when teaching English to young learner and the solution provided to be able to solve the problems for pre-service teacher, the researcher would like to conclude the research result as follows :

1. The problems faced by pre-service teacher when teaching English are they do teaching-learning activities through online learning that can make pre-service teacher difficulties for explain the lesson they just give a link video on Youtube then the students watching that video and study by themself or give a video on WhatsApp group, they must more extra explain that the lesson so that there is no misconceptions.
2. The solution provided to be able to solve the problems pre-service teacher of Madrasah Ibtidaiyah, the school takes the policy for students to attend the school which aims if some students do not understand about the lesson pre-service teacher or the teacher give explain the lesson more clearly.

B. Suggestions

Based on finding, the writer has the suggestion as follows :

1. For pre-service teacher of Madrasah Ibtidaiyah teacher education, it is hope that they will be learn from experience when teaching English to make it better and improvement of their dedication. Eventhough they are not from English department but they will have to study hard if there is such a thing that they have to deal with.
2. For the writer, it is hope you can research of other problems faced by pre-service teacher.