A. History of Kayakah Village

People give the name “Kayakah” which begins with an old man who lived in the middle of the forest. he does farm and garden every day until a long time. Sometimes, the old man comes out of the forest area to market to sell his agricultural products.<sup>81</sup>

When he left the forest for a long time to buy necessities for his life and he arrived in the market. He bought what he needed and when the parents paid for what he bought, he was very surprised when the seller said this money was not valid. the old man did not believe that his money was not valid. when he tried several times to other sellers it turned out they say the same thing.<sup>82</sup>

Finally, the old man came home with his money. When he got home, he looked at the money while saying in his heart "it would be a shame if it was thrown away" because it was the result of his hard work for so long time. After all this time the old man was pensive. Finally, he thought of making clothes out of the obsolete money.<sup>83</sup>

Long story short, the old man made the clothes that were covered with banknotes and the buttons made from coins. After finishing packing the crops to be sold later, the old man went to the market. In the market, many people looked at the old man and said in the Banjar Hulu language "sugihkah inya...? (is he rich...?)". This question mark eventually became the name of the village, namely Kayakah Village, which until now has had its inhabitants increase, starting in 2018, the population of Kayakah village reached 1,504 people, which are divided into 437 family heads spread over 8 neighborhood Associations.<sup>84</sup>
