Advances in Information and Communication Technology are actually very important for students at Madrasah Aliyah. Advances in Information and Communication Technology should be able to have a positive influence on students' morals so that they can improve their intellectuality. However, From the various things that have been explained about the current development of the internet or social media, which generally provide convenience for its users, it should be able to influence the morals of students. The formulation of this problem is 1) How far is the internet usage of Madrasah Aliyah students in Tanah Bumbu Regency? 2) To what extent are the students of Madrasah Aliyah in Tanah Bumbu Regency? 3) Is there a significant effect of internet use on the morals of Madrasah Aliyah students in Tanah Bumbu Regency?

This type of research is quantitative research, Data collection techniques in this study used questionnaires, interviews, and documentation. The data analysis technique used quantitative analysis.

There is a significant negative effect between internet use on the morals of Madrasah Aliyah students throughout Tanah Bumbu Regency, this is based on the results of the regression coefficient of -1.368. This means that the more students use the internet, the worse their morals are, such as being lazy to study, often fighting or fighting, often skipping school, feeling unpleasant when they don't play on the internet, not knowing the time, and not wanting to help their parents. On the other hand, the less students use the internet, the better the students' morals.
