Your paper entitled Evaluation of Arabic Learning Program at PTKIN During Covid-19 is yet another research on Covid-19. It is yet to see how it is different from other studies. At first glance, there is no role or impact of COVID-19 on evaluation/ assessment explained significantly by the author, or if there is any, the author has failed to highlight that impact. Please check. If you want to discuss this impact, give appropriate examples of evaluation/ assessment, the role of online education, etc

Looking at the text, the author says “This paper explores how the evaluation of Arabic language learning programs at State Islamic Religious Universities (PTKIN) in Indonesia during the Covid-19 period.” This sentence in abstract attempts to mention the objective of the research but it is incomplete sentence and difficult to understand the objective: The same mistake is seen in the last paragraph of introduction when you write, “the purpose of this study is to describe how the evaluation of Arabic learning programs at three UINs.” Do you mean, “how” the evaluation was done? If so, please state clearly and in simple language.

There are several words in Indonesian language/ spellings e.g. mufradat, ta'bir, syafahy, tahriry, etc. that must be removed or English equivalents given. The journal also follows the APA style in which footnotes/ foot references are not permitted. Please remove all footnotes and put them in the end alphabetically in APA style. The in-text references are also to be shown in parentheses e.g., (Munip, 2017; Faizah, 2019) without the initial letter of first name. Likewise, please remove or translate all the end references which are in the Indonesian language. Last, but not the least, there are serious language errors, and fragmented sentences e.g. “In contrast to the two UINs above, UIN Makassar in monitoring through reports from class leaders. However, PPB already has a monitoring basis, compiles a grid of prepared teaching materials, has compiled rules for the implementation of training,” and so on. Please take the services of a language expert to remove these errors before you resubmit.

Last but not the least, there are many other observations, specifically

- Give full forms of abbreviations like UIN, PPB, at the first instance:
- Avoid abbreviations in the title if they are not popular e.g. PTKIN (give its full form in the abstract)
- Avoid self-plagiarism, e.g. the first author has at least 4 references in this paper. Please restrict to 1 or 2.

Reviewer 2

IS this study really on COVID-19 or Arabic language or assessment? The purpose is not very clear as the study lacks the coherence in presentation. The author is advised to specify the research objective in simple, clear and unambiguous language. The introduction comprises the literature review also, which is acceptable only when the author has done justice with both the components. An introduction, must contain the background of the study, the rationale, it explains the connection between all the variables/ constructs of the study. It may also add a few theoretical studies and definitions of the topic/ variables to support the objective of the study. It may also highlight the problems statements/ research questions. Please check and add what is missing.

The role of literature review is to cite studies to support your argument, but this study does not include any empirical studies that could make the current study a convincing one.

Checklist to make the changes in your paper

1. Abstract: divide it into Purpose, Methodology, Findings and Implications for Research and Practice, adding recommendations, limitations, in the end.
2. Introduction: should contain a brief background information about the topic Please check if you can add a statement about rationale, purpose and research objectives along with the eligibility criteria. You may also state that there exists a research/ literature gap. You may also create a separate literature review section.
3. Methodology: The journal format requires the method section to contain Research design, meta- analysis method or procedure, and analysis. Please present your data accordingly.
4. Results and Discussion: These are two separate sections.. Results section contains the outcomes which may be presented in tabular form. Discussion section must contain summary of main results and brief references to previous researches.
5. Conclusion, Recommendations and Implications. It must include a brief conclusion of the research completed, limitations, recommendations for future research and implications for research and practice.

There are language, grammar and syntax errors; several sentences are short, fragmented and give incomplete meaning, not fit for a good research paper Please have it checked by a language expert before you resubmit.
