Your Paper Entitled "Arabic Phrases Errors in Writing Indonesian Students" hints at a good topic of research but it does not represent the true objective of research. In the abstract you say, " This study aimed to detect errors in Arabic phrases writing for students of Arabic Language Education Magister Department at UIN Antasari Banjarmasin Indonesia in their thesis, also the factors that caused these writing errors." This shows that your research is limited only to a small sample (Arabic Language Education Magister Department at UIN Antasari Banjarmasin Indonesia) as you later did not mention about its generalization and transferability.

Secondly, later the author narrows down the research problems into two research questions: (a) what are the errors in writing mastery of master students in Arabic Language Education at UIN Antasari Banjarmasin Indonesia in writing their thesis?; (b) what are the factors that cause errors in writing mastery of tarkib master students in Arabic Language Education at UIN Antasari Banjarmasin Indonesia in writing their thesis? However, prior to forming the RQs, it is important for the researcher to state the rationale of this study. Why do you feel the need to do this research? Was there any research h or literature gap felt? Was it a need of the academic domain? And so on.

Last, but not the least, the author claims (Introduction, 4th paragraph) that "errors arise from three things, namely: (a) the influence of the first language; (b) internal difficulties of the target language or Foreign language; (c) target language or foreign language teaching system. "Please make sure that while discussing the findings/ results of the study, you must address to these factors logically, supported by evidences, which seem to be missing. You are required to make a good comparison od these errors with the target/ foreign language (which in this case is Arabic and Indonesian

On the while , the paper is good, well written and does contribute to the domain of Arabic language, in relation to a foreign language/ target language(Arabic and Indonesian)

First and foremost, the title needs to be reframed as it sounds a title of an academic essay and not a research paper. add a word or two that hints at some investigation. Secondly the abstract is ok, but it must show clearly as sub headings, Purpose, Methodology, Findings, and Implications for Research and Practice. The introduction does contain the background information about the topic, but a statement about rationale, purpose and research objectives are lacking. The Literature Review section also has no latest empirical or field studies. Please add a few latest studies, theoretical and empirical, showing the significance of language errors in the context.

Results and Discussion section does contain some information but it is difficult to relate to the research questions stated earlier. The conclusion should summarize briefly the research completed, limitations, recommendations for future research and implications for research and practice. Add what is missing

The study is good and can be accepted for publication after minor changes.
