Keyword: Rajah, Dalampagar Ulu Society, Living Qur'an.

South Kalimantan famous by the people who are predominantly Muslim, especially the Martapura area which is often referred as Veranda of Mecca. The use of the Qur'an in everyday life has become commonplace, as well as the people of the village of Dalampagar Ulu who are known as makers of objects called rajah. In that area the rajah made using verses from the Qur'an, this reflects the history of the Prophet Muhammad. which he blew al-Mu'awizatain (surah An-Naas and Al-Falaq) to himself when he was sick.

This research is a field research that takes place in Dalampagar Ulu Village, Martapura Timur District, Banjar Regency, South Kalimantan Province. The methodology used is descriptive qualitative. Data collection techniques in this study by means of interviews, observation, and documentation. Then the data processing techniques are data collection, editing, classification, and interpretation.

The results of this study are: (1) every rajah made by the Dalampagar Ulu society contains inscriptions in the form of verses from the Qur'an and Arabic numerals. (2) the verses of the Qur'an that are used as rajah include: Basmalah, ayat kursi, ayat lima, ayat tujuh, ayat lima belas, ayatul hifzi, surah Al-Baqarah, surah Ali Imran, surah Al-A' raf, surah Yusuf, surah Thaha, Surah Al-Ikhlash, and Tahlil. (3) the procedure for using the rajah varies. starting from being saved and kept, pasted on the wall, and used as daily necessities.
