Keywords: Teacher Identity, Narrative, English Language Teaching

The formation of teacher identity is the main focus in the world of education, with educational priorities seeking to maximize the effectiveness of teachers' roles through developing their identity. Therefore, this research was designed to investigate the process of teacher identity formation and the factors that influence it. In this research, using a narrative inquiry design, researcher conducted in-depth interviews with English teachers at SMP IT Madani Banjarmasin to understand the process of forming their identity and the factors that influenced it. The research results show that there are seven main aspects that shape teacher identity, including disciplinary identity, student-related identity, a sense of appreciation, a sense of connectedness, a sense of competence, a sense of commitment, and a mirror of power. In addition, factors such as expertise in teaching practice, personal experience and history, and conditions within and outside the educational environment also play an important role in the formation of teacher identity.
