

CHAPTER V

CLOSURE

A. Conclusion

1. The researcher concluded that every English instructor at EF Banjarmasin uses various types of public speaking, such as in formal Public Speaking there are:
 - a. Informative Public Speaking
 - b. Persuasive Public Speaking
 - c. Demonstrative Public Speaking
 - d. Motivational Public Speaking.

Also it can be concluded that in informal public speaking, most English Instructors at EF used Broadcasters.

2. The researchers also concluded that each English Instructor uses different public speaking techniques, such as:
 - a. Fashion style
 - b. Script
 - c. Vocal Technique
 - d. Body Language

B. Suggestion

Based on the researcher's experience, public speaking is very important to learn, especially for teachers. Becoming a public speaker is not just about speaking in public but also about sharing important information with others.

To become a public speaker, you must have self-confidence and practice often. If you want to become a teacher, it is important to understand the basics of becoming a public speaker.

Public Speaking is one of the most important skill, that is why Public Speaking skill is important to learn for the candidate of language instructor. Before learning the basic of becoming a public speaker is to build self-confidence, then always practice to get used in teaching and speaking in front of everyone.