

CHAPTER V

CLOSURE

A. Conclusion

In this section, conclusions will be drawn from the findings and discussion in the previous discussion. The conclusion aims to answer the research question of this research.

Based on the analyzing and indefying the data on Little Abid Balita Cerdan dan Saleh, some video of ABC Islamic Quiz youtube channel and 2 videos of MiniMuslim youtub channel, researcher would like to conclude this reserach to answer the question “what are supplementary material which consist of Islamic Value that can be used for Teaching English for Young Learner.” Islamic values themselves are good values taught in the Islamic religion to be carried out and applied by Muslims in everyday life which then reflects a person with good morals (akhlak karimah). Researchers found several Islamic values in the three types of data sources which can be used ins Teaching English for Young Learner including, believe in Allah and His prophet, respect to parents, daily prayers, be honest, gratitude, kindness, seek for forgiveness, being patient, minimalist lifestyle, tolerant and keep the environment clean.

B. Suggestion

Based on research findings, there are several suggestions for further research that examines the same field, namely:

For future researchers who will research in the same field to look for more supplementary materials that contains Islamic values, such as games or motivational stories or song so that they can be used in the teaching and learning activity in the classroom.