B. Suggestion

After conducting research on teaching English vocabulary at Rumahles Bahasa English Banjarmasin, the researcher provided several suggestions, especially for the teacher. The researcher gives the following advice to teachers: to motivate students in the teaching and learning process, teachers must instill a strong sense of motivation in their students when teaching English, especially in teaching vocabulary. teachers should use effective teaching strategies when teaching vocabulary to students. This is especially important when teaching new words to students. Apart from that, teachers must also be able to explain information clearly and slowly. Using flashcards is an effective way to teach vocabulary; it should be used in learning activities because it can attract students' attention. In this way students will be able to understand the material more clearly. Additionally, researchers offer some suggestions to teachers on how to teach languages to young students. To prevent students from becoming disinterested in class, teachers must be more initiative and creative by using different media to teach vocabulary in English.
