

CHAPTER V

CLOSURE

A. Conclusion

The researcher used a qualitative research method with documentation and observation for collecting the data. This research has two research questions, they are how to how to use the Instagram account @kampunginggrislc to learn vocabulary and what are aspects of vocabulary can learned from @kampunginggrislc.

In this research, the researcher found several ways or steps to use the @kampunginggrislc Instagram account in learning vocabulary, including following the Instagram account, using the save and collection features, taking notes on new vocabulary, making sentences using newly learned vocabulary, and participating in quizzes. Then the researchers also found several aspects of vocabulary that can be learned from @kampunginggrislc, including meaning, spelling, pronunciation, word class, and word usage.

B. Suggestion

The researcher offers an important recommendation following the aforementioned findings as follows:

1. For the followers

It's intended that by using the account, followers would be able to increase and learn language.

2. For further research

Hopefully, this research can help other researchers in researching the same thing which can be used as a reference in their research later.

3. For the Instagram User

It can be a platform that can be used as a learning tool or as a teaching tool that is very effective and accessible to everyone.
