1.	Ahmad Zaini Syauqilhaq	(1) Yes, sure. My name is Ahmad Zaini Syauqilhaq. I am a student in the English Education Department at UIN Antasari Banjarmasin. I'm in the fourth semester now. My hobbies are reading, playing futsal, and sometimes watching movies in my free time. I hope I can improve my English skill especially in speaking. (2) Uhm, every day I usually wake up at five in the morning. After that, I pray Subuh. Around seven o'clock, I prepare for campus and go to class if I have schedule. In the afternoon, sometimes I take a nap or do my homework. At night, I usually review material, watch YouTube about English learning, or just relax with my family. I also try to read a book for at least fifteen minutes before sleep. (3) Okay, in the picture I see a family working together in a garden. There are three people: a father, a mother, and their child. The father is holding a shovel and looks like he is digging the ground. The mother is smiling and maybe planting something. The child seems happy and is helping the parents. They are wearing casual clothes and the weather looks sunny. I think this activity is good because it makes the family close and also teaches the child about nature and teamwork. (4) In my opinion, face-to-face learning is better than online learning. Because when we meet the teacher and friends directly, we can understand the material more clearly. It's easier to ask questions and also have discussion. I think face-to-face learning helps me focus more, and I feel more motivated when I'm in the classroom. But sometimes it also depends on the teacher's way of teaching. Overall, I prefer face-to-face because the interaction is real and more effective.
2.	Alda Luthfianida	(1) Hello, my name is Alda Luthfianida. I am a student at UIN Antasari Banjarmasin, in English Education Department. I am now in the fourth semester. I come from Banjarmasin and I live with my family. My hobby is watching movies. (2) yes. In the morning, I usually wake up at around five o'clock, then I help my mom to prepare breakfast. After that, I take a shower and get ready for my class. My class usually starts at eight. In the afternoon, after class, I sometimes take a nap or do my assignments. At night, I

		watch YouTube or read books. Before sleeping, I always check my phone and set alarm. that's my daily routine. (3) Okay. In the picture, I see three people. They are in the garden. There is a man, a woman, and a child. I think they are a family. The man is wearing a blue shirt and he is using a shovel. The woman is maybe the mother. She wears a hat and is holding a plant. And the child is smiling and helping them. They look happy. Maybe they are planting together or doing gardening as a weekend activity. I think it's a fun family moment. (4) I think face-to-face learning is better than online. Because, in class, I can focus more and ask the teacher directly if I don't understand. I also like meeting my friends and working in group. Sometimes online class makes me feel lazy and hard to concentrate. So, for me, face-to-face is more effective.
3.	Auladini Hafizah	(1) Yes, sure. My name is Auladini Hafizah. You can call me Dina. I am twenty years old and I'm a student at the English Education Study Program in UIN Antasari Banjarmasin. I live in Banjarmasin with my family. I like reading novels, listening to music. Nice to meet you! (2) on weekdays, I usually wake up at around five in the morning. After praying, I help my mom prepare breakfast. Then I get ready for campus. My classes usually start at eight, and I attend all of them if I can. Sometimes we have online classes too. In the afternoon, I take a rest or do assignments. If I have free time, I like to watch English movies or read something. At night, I review what I learned and prepare for the next day. I try to sleep at ten or eleven. That's more or less my routine. (3) Okay, in this picture, I see a family doing gardening activities together. There is a father, a mother, and their child. The father is holding a shovel and looks like he is digging something. The mother is watering the plants with a watering can. And the child seems happy maybe helping or just enjoying the moment. They are outside, in the garden, and the weather looks sunny and bright. I think they are spending quality time together while taking care of their plants. It looks like a healthy and fun activity. (4) I think face-to-face learning is better than online learning in many ways. First, we can focus more because we are in the class, not at home. Second, we can ask the lecturer directly and have discussions with friends. In online classes, sometimes there are connection problems, or we feel lazy because we are at home. But in face-to-face learning, we feel more motivated and serious. I still think technology is useful, but meeting in person is more effective for me.

4.	Aulia Fatimah	(1) Yes, of course. My name is Aulia Fatimah. I am twenty years old and I come from Banjarmasin. I'm a fourth-semester student at the English Education Study Program in UIN Antasari. In my free time, I enjoy reading novels and listening to music. I'm also interested in teaching, so I hope to become an English teacher in the future. (2) Sure. On weekdays, I usually wake up around 5 AM. I start my day by praying and then helping my mom prepare breakfast. After that, I take a shower and get ready for class. My classes usually start at 8 AM and finish around noon or sometimes in the afternoon. After class, I either take a nap or do some assignments. In the evening, I like to spend time with my family or review materials for the next day. Before going to bed, I usually read a book or scroll through social media for a while. (3) Okay. In this picture, I see a family that is gardening together. There are three people: a father, a mother, and their child. The father is wearing a hat and holding a small shovel. He looks like he is planting something. The mother is beside him, holding a basket, maybe full of vegetables or flowers. The child is smiling and helping too. It seems like they are enjoying the activity. The background is green and bright, which shows that the weather is nice. I think this is a great family activity because they can spend quality time and also take care of the environment. (4) Personally, I prefer face-to-face learning because it's more interactive and easier to focus. When I learn in person, I can ask questions directly and get immediate feedback from my lecturer. Also, I feel more motivated when I'm around my classmates. It helps me improve my communication skills and confidence. However, I also understand that online learning is useful in some situations, like during the pandemic. But overall, I think face-to-face learning is more effective, especially for speaking practice.
5.	Aulia Febriana	(1) Yes, of course. My name is Aulia Febriana. I'm 20 years old and I'm a student of English Education Department at Antasari State Islamic University. In my free time, I like listening to music, reading novels, and sometimes drawing. (2) Well, on weekdays, I usually wake up at around 5 a.m., then I pray and prepare for campus. I often have breakfast

		at home before leaving. My classes usually start at 8 a.m. and finish in the afternoon. After that, I go back to my boarding house and take a short rest. In the evening, I do my assignments or study for the next day. Sometimes I also watch YouTube or talk with my roommates before sleeping. (3) Okay, in this picture, I can see a family who is gardening together. There are three people: a mother, a father, and their child. The father is digging the ground with a shovel, and the mother is planting some flowers. The child is helping by holding a small watering can. They look happy and it seems like they enjoy spending time together in their garden. The weather looks sunny and bright. I think it's a good activity to do with family. (4) In my opinion, face-to-face learning is more effective than online learning. It helps me concentrate better and understand the material more clearly because I can ask the lecturer directly. Also, I feel more motivated when I study in class with my friends. Although online learning has its advantages, I prefer face-to-face because of the interaction and real classroom atmosphere.
6.	Fairuz Shafa Nabila	(1) Yes, sure. My name is Fairuz Shafa Nabila. I am 20 years old and I'm currently a fourth-semester student at the English Education Department of UIN Antasari Banjarmasin. I really like reading and listening to music in my free time. I'm also interested in improving my speaking skills, so I always try to practice with my friends or by recording myself at home. (2) Yes. On weekdays, I usually wake up at around 5 a.m. Then I pray, and after that, I help my mother to prepare breakfast. At 7 a.m., I get ready for my online or offline class, depending on the schedule. Classes usually finish at around 12 or 1 p.m. After class, I take a short break, have lunch, and sometimes I review the lessons or do my assignments. In the evening, I like to read books or watch English videos to improve my listening. Before I sleep, I try to reflect on what I have learned that day. (3) In the picture, I see a family who is gardening together. There is a father, a mother, and their child. The father is wearing a hat and holding a shovel. He looks like he is digging the ground. The mother is picking vegetables or maybe planting something. She seems happy. The child is also helping; maybe he is watering the plants. I think they enjoy spending time together in nature. It looks like

		a healthy and productive activity. Gardening as a family can also make the relationship stronger, I think. (4) I think face-to-face learning is very important, especially for language students like us. In a real classroom, we can interact directly with the teacher and our friends. It helps improve communication and confidence. We can also do more speaking practice, and the teacher can give feedback more clearly. However, I also think online learning has benefits, especially when we need flexibility. But for me, face-to-face is more effective and fun.
7.	Farhan Dika Permana.	(1) Okay, my name is Farhan Dika Permana. I am twenty years old, and I'm a student at UIN Antasari Banjarmasin. I'm in the fourth semester now, majoring in English Education. in my free time I like watching movies and playing futsal with my friends. (2) Yes. on weekdays, I usually wake up at six o'clock, then I pray and take a shower. After that, I prepare for campus. My class usually starts at eight or nine, so I go by motorbike. Uhm, after class I sometimes eat lunch with my friends. In the afternoon, I usually do assignments or read. At night, I sometimes relax or watch a movie, then I go to sleep at around eleven. (3) Yes, I see a family in the garden. There are three people a mother, a father, and their child. The mother is holding a basket, maybe for vegetables. The father is planting something in the soil, and the child is helping him. They look happy and enjoy the time together. I think they are working together to take care of the garden. There are some green plants around them and the weather looks nice. (4) I think face-to-face learning is better than online. Because, in face-to-face class, we can focus more and we can ask directly to the teacher. We can also meet our friends and do group activities easier. Online class is helpful too, but sometimes the connection is bad, and it's hard to understand the material. So in my opinion, I prefer face-to-face learning because it's more effective and interactive.
8.	Hana Salsabila	(1) Yes, of course. My name is Hana Salsabila. I am 20 years old and I'm a student at English Education Department in UIN Antasari Banjarmasin. Nice to meet you. (2) Sure. On weekdays, I usually wake up at 5 a.m. and then I do morning prayer. After that, I help my mom in the kitchen, like preparing breakfast. At 7 a.m., I go to campus by motorbike. I usually have class until around

		12 or sometimes 2 p.m. After class, I go home, take lunch, and sometimes I take a short nap. In the afternoon, I study or do some assignments. At night, I usually relax, watch YouTube, or read. I sleep around 10 or 11 p.m. (3) Okay. In the picture, I see three people who are gardening together. There is a mother, a father, and their child. The father is wearing a hat and holding a small shovel. The mother is smiling and helping the child, maybe planting something. They look happy and I think they are enjoying their time outside. There are green plants around them, and it looks like they are in the backyard of their house. I think this is a good activity to do with family. (4) I think face-to-face learning is better than online learning because we can focus more and interact directly with the teacher and our friends. In online learning, sometimes the connection is bad or we feel bored. In class, we can ask questions easily, join discussions, and feel more active. But I also think online learning is helpful when we cannot go to school. So maybe combining both is good. But personally, I prefer face-to-face.
9.	Karnia	(1) Yes, sure. My name is Karnia. I'm twenty years old and I live in Banjarmasin. I'm a fourth-semester student in English Education Department at UIN Antasari. I love learning languages and also enjoy reading in my free time. (2) Yes. Usually, I wake up at 5 a.m. and I start my day with a morning prayer. After that, I help my mother prepare breakfast, then I get ready for class. Most of my classes start at 8 a.m., so I go to campus or sometimes join online classes. In the afternoon, I study or do assignments, and in the evening, I like to read or watch English videos to improve my listening. Before sleeping, I usually review my lessons for the next day. (3) In the picture, I see a family gardening together. There are three people: a mother, a father, and their child. The mother is holding a basket with vegetables, the father is digging the soil with a small shovel, and the child seems happy helping them. They are all wearing casual clothes and hats to protect from the sun. It looks like a sunny day and they are working together in the garden. I think it shows a happy family spending time outdoors and doing a healthy activity. (4) I think face-to-face learning is very important, especially for subjects that need interaction like speaking. In face-to-face class, we can ask the teacher directly and communicate with friends, so it helps us learn better. It also motivates me to study more seriously. But sometimes, it can be tiring if we have many classes in one day. Overall, I prefer face-to-face learning because it makes me feel more active and confident.

10.	M. Erwin Saputra Kurtubi	(1) Yes, sure. My name is M. Erwin Saputra Kurtubi. I am twenty years old, and I'm currently a fourth-semester student at the English Education Study Program at UIN Antasari Banjarmasin. I come from Tanah Laut, and my hobbies include reading, playing football, and sometimes watching English movies to improve my listening. Nice to meet you! (2) Okay, so usually I wake up around five in the morning. I do morning prayer, and then I sometimes go for a short walk or just help my mother at home. After that, I prepare for class. Most of the time, I have online or face-to-face classes starting at eight or nine. During the day, I study, do assignments, or attend discussions with my friends. In the afternoon, I like to take a short nap or play football with my neighbors. In the evening, I review materials or read books. Before sleeping, I also like to listen to English podcasts. That's my usual day. (3) Alright. In the picture, I can see a family that is gardening together. There are three people: a father, a mother, and their child. The father is digging the soil using a small shovel. He looks very focused. The mother is smiling and holding a basket with some vegetables inside. Meanwhile, the child is helping by watering the plants. It looks like they are enjoying their time together in the garden. The environment seems peaceful, and it's a great example of quality family time. I think this activity also teaches the child how to take care of nature. (4) Personally, I prefer face-to-face learning because it allows more interaction between students and teachers. We can ask questions directly, and it's easier to concentrate because we are in a learning environment. It also improves speaking and social skills, which is harder to do in online classes. However, I also think online learning is useful in certain situations, like during the pandemic. But overall, I think face-to-face learning is more effective and enjoyable.
11.	Maulida Rahma	(1) Hello, my name is Maulida Rahma. I'm nineteen years old and I am a student of English Education at UIN Antasari. In my free time, I like listening to music. Nice to meet you! (2) Yes. Uhm, every day I usually wake up at five o'clock in the morning. I pray, then help my mother prepare

		breakfast. After that, I take a shower and get ready for class. My class usually starts at eight, so I attend online or go to campus. In the afternoon, I do my assignments or review the materials. Sometimes I also help my little sister with her homework. At night, I like to read or watch YouTube videos before sleeping around ten or eleven. That's my daily routine. (3) In the picture, I see a family is gardening together. There are three people: a mother, a father, and their child. The father is wearing a blue shirt and a hat. He looks like he is planting something. The mother is beside him, maybe helping or preparing the soil. She wears a pink shirt. The child is holding a small watering can and watering the plants. They look happy and enjoying the activity. The weather looks sunny, and the garden is full of green plants. I think it's a good family time. (4) I think face-to-face learning is better than online learning in some ways. When we study in class, we can meet our friends and ask the teacher directly if we don't understand something. It also helps us focus more because at home, there are many distractions. But I think online learning is also useful, especially when we can't go to school. So, I prefer face-to-face learning because it feels more active and easier to understand.
12.	Melrica Griseldis	(1) Yes, sure. My name is Melrica Griseldis. I am twenty years old and I live in Banjarmasin. I am a student of English Education at UIN Antasari, and now I'm in the fourth semester. (2) Okay. So, usually I wake up at around 5 a.m., then I take a shower and pray. After that, I prepare for my class. If I have online class, I just study at home, but if it's offline, I go to campus. I usually study until the afternoon, and after that I take a rest or sometimes hang out with my friends. At night, I review the lessons or do my assignments. Before I sleep, I usually listen to music or read something. That's my routine from Monday to Friday. (3) Yes. In this picture, I see a family gardening together. There are three people: a father, a mother, and their daughter. The father is digging the soil using a small shovel. He looks focused and seems to enjoy it. The mother is watering the plants with a watering can, and the daughter is smiling while planting something in a pot. The situation looks happy and peaceful. They are all wearing casual clothes and hats to protect themselves

		from the sun. I think gardening like this is a good activity for family bonding. (4) I think face-to-face learning is better than online learning in many ways. First, I can focus more in class because I am not distracted like when I study at home. Second, I can interact directly with my lecturers and classmates, which helps me understand the material better. Also, I can ask questions more easily. However, I know that online learning is helpful too, especially during the pandemic. But overall, I prefer face-to-face learning because it feels more effective and motivating.
13.	Muhammad Imam Anas Normualdi	(1) Yes, of course. My name is Muhammad Imam Anas Normualdi. I am twenty years old. I am a fourth semester student at UIN Antasari, majoring in English Education. In my free time, I like reading books, listening to music, and sometimes I play badminton with my friends. I hope in the future I can be an English teacher. (2) Yes. Every day, I usually wake up at around five o'clock. After that, I take a shower and pray Subuh. Then I prepare for class. If I have morning class, I leave home at seven. If not, I usually read or do my assignments at home. In the afternoon, I have lunch with my family. Sometimes I take a nap if I feel tired. At night, I study again or watch YouTube to improve my English. Then, I go to sleep around ten. (3) In the picture, I see a family doing gardening activity together. There is a father who is digging the soil with a small shovel. He looks happy and focused. Next to him, there is a mother who is holding a basket. Maybe she is collecting vegetables or flowers. And then, a child is also helping. I think the child is watering the plants. They are outside, maybe in the backyard. The weather looks nice. I think it's a great activity because it teaches children to love nature and work together. (4) For me, face-to-face learning is better than online learning. Because in face-to-face class, we can ask the teacher directly, and it's easier to understand the material. Also, we can meet friends, discuss together, and practice speaking more naturally. In online learning, sometimes the connection is bad or we feel lazy. So, I prefer face-to-face because it is more effective and makes me more active in class.
14.	Munalisya	(1) Yes, sure. My name is Munalisya. I am 20 years old and I'm a student at the English Education Study Program at UIN Antasari Banjarmasin. I really enjoy learning English, especially speaking and listening.

		(2) Umm, yes. My daily routine is quite simple. I usually wake up at 5 a.m., then I pray Subuh and prepare for the day. After that, I help my mother a little before I take a shower and get ready for class. My class usually starts at 8, and I attend lectures until afternoon. After that, I do some assignments or review the lessons. In the evening, I sometimes watch videos in English or read a book before going to bed around 10 p.m. (3) Yes. In the picture, I can see three people. There is a mother, a father, and their child. They are gardening together. The mother is holding a watering can and watering the plants. The father is digging the soil using a small shovel. And the child looks happy, maybe she is helping to plant something. They all look busy but enjoy the activity. I think they are spending quality time as a family while taking care of the garden. (4) I think face-to-face learning is very important, especially for language students like us. We can interact directly with the lecturer and our classmates, which helps improve our speaking and listening skills. It's also easier to focus and ask questions if we don't understand something. But of course, it depends on the situation. Online learning is useful too, but I prefer face-to-face because it feels more real and motivating.
15.	Nadya Tasyarina	(1) Hello, my name is Nadya Tasyarina. I'm twenty years old and I live in Banjarmasin. I am a student at UIN Antasari, majoring in English Education. I love reading novels in my free time. Nice to meet you. (2) Sure. I usually wake up at around five in the morning, then I pray and help my mom in the kitchen. After that, I prepare for class. If I have morning classes, I join them online or go to campus. During the day, I study, do some assignments, or review the lessons. In the evening, I usually read a book or scroll through my phone, and then I go to sleep at around ten. (3) In the picture, I see a family gardening together. There is a father, a mother, and their child. The father is holding a shovel, maybe he is digging the soil. The mother is watering the plants using a watering can. And the child looks happy, I think he is helping his parents. They look very close and happy. I think they are spending quality time together in their garden. (4) I think face-to-face learning is very important, especially for language students. It helps us to practice speaking and listening directly with the teacher and friends. It also makes it easier to ask questions if we don't understand something. Online learning is okay, but face-to-face feels more effective and connected.

16.	Norrahma Anggraeni	(1) Okay, thank you. My name is Norrahma Anggraeni. I'm a student at State Islamic University of Antasari, majoring in English Education. I'm now in the fourth semester. Nice to meet you. (2) Sure. usually, I wake up at 5 a.m., then I pray Subuh. After that, I help my mother in the kitchen for a while, and then I prepare myself for campus. My classes usually start at 8 a.m., so I leave home around 7.30. I go to campus by motorcycle. After class, sometimes I go to the library or just go home directly. In the afternoon, I usually take a nap or review my lessons. At night, I do my homework and sometimes watch YouTube or read. Then I go to sleep around 10 or 11. (3) Okay. In this picture, I see a family. There are three people: a mother, a father, and their child. They are working together in the garden. The mother is holding a basket with some vegetables, maybe carrots or tomatoes. The father is using a small shovel, and the child looks happy helping them. It seems they are enjoying the activity together. The weather looks sunny, and the garden is green and beautiful. I think it's a fun and healthy family activity. (4) I think face-to-face learning is better than online learning, especially for speaking and group discussions. In face-to-face class, we can interact directly with the lecturer and friends, and it helps me to stay focused.\n\nSometimes online class is more flexible, but it also makes me lazy and distracted. So, I prefer face-to-face because I feel more motivated and can understand the lesson better.
17.	Nur Amirah Salsabila	(1) Yes. Hello, my name is Nur Amirah Salsabila. You can call me Amirah. I am a student at English Education Department in UIN Antasari Banjarmasin. I'm now in the fourth semester. I like reading and sometimes watching English movies to improve my listening. (2) Uhm, yes. In the morning, I usually wake up at six o'clock and then I pray. After that, I prepare for my class. If I have morning class, I join it online or go to campus. After class, I usually take a rest or help my mother. Sometimes, I study English or do assignments in the afternoon. At night, I usually read a book or watch something, and then I go to sleep around ten. (3) Okay. In the picture, I see a family. There are three people: a father, a mother, and a child. They are working together in a garden. The father is holding a shovel, and

		the mother looks like planting something. The child is helping, maybe watering the plants. They look happy. I think they enjoy gardening together as a family activity. (4) I think face to face learning is better because we can meet the lecturer directly and also friends. It makes the learning more active. We can ask questions more easily and have real discussion. But sometimes it is also tiring, especially when the schedule is full. But overall, I prefer face to face than online learning.
18.	Raisa Aulia Putri	(1) Yes, sure. My name is Raisa Aulia Putri. I'm twenty years old and I'm a student at the English Education Department in UIN Antasari Banjarmasin. (2) Uhm, every day I usually wake up at 5 a.m., then I pray and prepare for my classes. I have breakfast around 6.30 and then go to campus if I have offline class. If the class is online, I just study from home. After class, I usually take a short rest and help my mother at home. In the evening, I study or do assignments, and before sleeping I usually read a little or watch something on YouTube. (3) Okay, in this picture I see a family doing gardening together. There is a father, a mother, and a child. The father is holding a shovel and seems to dig the soil. The mother is watering the plants using a watering can. The child is helping too, maybe planting something. They look happy and enjoy their activity. I think it's a good example of quality time with family in nature. (4) I think face-to-face learning is better than online learning in many ways. First, we can focus more in class because there are fewer distractions. Second, it is easier to understand the material when the teacher explains directly. And we can also ask questions immediately. We also feel more connected with friends and lecturers. But I also think online learning is helpful in certain situations, like when we cannot come to campus. So, both have advantages, but I prefer face-to-face learning.
19.	Riska Maulida Putri	(1) Hello, my name is Riska Maulida Putri. I am twenty years old and I'm currently studying English Education at UIN Antasari Banjarmasin. (2) Yes. On weekdays, I usually wake up at 5 a.m. and do morning prayer. After that, I help my mother prepare breakfast, then get ready for my classes. Most of my classes start at 8 a.m., so I leave home around 7:30. After class, I sometimes study at the library or do assignments with my friends. In the evening, I have dinner with my family, and then I usually review the material or watch English videos before going to bed around 10 p.m.

		(3) In the picture, I see a family that is gardening together. There are three people: a father, a mother, and a child. The father is digging the soil, the mother is planting something, and the child is watering the plants. They all look happy and seem to enjoy the activity. The background shows trees and the weather looks sunny. I think this picture shows a nice family moment and teaches us to love nature. (4) I prefer face-to-face learning because I can interact directly with the lecturer and my classmates. It helps me stay focused and understand the material better. I also feel more motivated to study when I'm in a classroom. Online learning is helpful, but sometimes the connection is bad or it's hard to concentrate. So for me, face-to-face learning is more effective and enjoyable.
20.	Rizkia Rahmi	(1) Okay, my name is Rizkia Rahmi. I am a student at UIN Antasari Banjarmasin. I am now in the fourth semester of English Education Department. I live in Banjarbaru with my family. I like reading books and sometimes watching Korean drama in my free time. (2) Yes. I usually wake up at five in the morning. Then I pray Subuh and help my mother in the kitchen. After that, I take a shower and prepare to go to campus. My class usually starts at 8 a.m. and finish around 12 or 2 p.m., depending on the schedule. After class, I go home, have lunch, and sometimes take a short nap. In the evening, I study or do assignments, and before sleep I like to read or listen to music. (3) In the picture, I see a family that is gardening together. There are three people: a mother, a father, and a child. The mother is holding a flower pot, the father is digging the ground with a small shovel, and the child is helping to water the plants. They all look happy and work together in the garden. I think this activity is good because it can make the family closer and the environment better. (4) I think face to face learning is better than online learning. In face to face, we can meet our friends and teachers directly. It's easier to ask questions and to focus in class. Even though online learning was helpful during the pandemic, sometimes the connection is bad and it's hard to understand the material. So, I prefer face to face because it's more effective and interactive.
21.	Syifa Surya Khairina	(1) Yes, sure. My name is Syifa Surya Khairina. I am a fourth-semester student at the English Education Department of UIN Antasari Banjarmasin. I am twenty

		years old and currently living in Banjarbaru. In my free time, I enjoy Scroll Tiktok, watching korean drama. (2) Usually, I wake up around five in the morning. After praying and tidying up my room, I prepare for my classes. If I have morning classes, I usually join them online or go to campus directly. After that, I study or review the materials in the afternoon. In the evening, I sometimes read, do my assignments, or help my mother at home. I always try to manage my time well so I can balance study and rest. (3) In this picture, I see a family doing gardening activities together. There are three people: a father, a mother, and their child. The father is digging the soil using a shovel. He looks focused and seems to be enjoying it. The mother is watering the plants using a small watering can. She is smiling and looks happy. Meanwhile, the child, who appears to be a boy, is helping his parents by holding a basket. It looks like they are planting vegetables in their backyard. The weather is bright, and the environment seems peaceful and clean. I think this activity shows a good example of family cooperation and spending quality time together. (4) Personally, I really like face-to-face learning. I think it's more effective than online learning because we can interact directly with the lecturer and classmates. It also helps improve communication skills, especially speaking. In face-to-face classes, I feel more focused and motivated to learn. Of course, it has some challenges, like transportation or tight schedules, but overall, I believe the benefits are greater. It also creates a more supportive academic environment.
22.	Tiara Putri Alila	(1) Hello, my name is Tiara Putri Alila. I'm twenty years old and I'm currently studying in the fourth semester at English Education Department of UIN Antasari Banjarmasin. (2) Yes, sure. On weekdays, I usually wake up at around 5 AM, then I do Subuh prayer. After that, I take a shower and prepare for campus. I usually have breakfast with my family before leaving. My classes start at 8, and usually finish around 1 or 2 PM. When I get home, I take a rest and sometimes review materials or do assignments. At night, I usually watch English videos or practice speaking by myself. I try to go to bed around 10 PM. (3) Okay. In the picture, I can see a family doing gardening together. There are three people: a father, a mother, and their child. The father is holding a shovel, maybe he is

		digging the soil. The mother looks like she is planting something, and the child is helping her. They are smiling and working happily in the garden. It seems like they enjoy spending time together in nature. (4) I think face-to-face learning is better than online learning, especially for speaking class. Because in face-to-face class, we can interact directly with our lecturer and classmates. It also helps us to speak more confidently and get immediate feedback. Sometimes, online learning makes me lazy or not serious, but in face-to-face, the atmosphere is more active and motivating.
23.	Ulya Nazila	(1) Yes, of course. My name is Ulya Nazila. I'm twenty years old and I'm a student at State Islamic University of Antasari Banjarmasin, majoring in English Education. (2) Sure. On weekdays, I usually wake up around 5 a.m. and pray Subuh. After that, I prepare myself and have a light breakfast. Then I go to campus for class, usually around 7 or 8 a.m. After class, I sometimes do assignments in the library or go back to the boarding house. In the afternoon, I rest or review the lessons. At night, I usually study, or if I'm tired, I just watch something relaxing before sleeping. (3) Yes, I see a family doing gardening activities. There are three people in the picture: a father, a mother, and a child. The father is digging the soil with a shovel, the mother is holding a basket with vegetables, and the child is watering the plants. They look happy and work together. It seems they enjoy spending time outside and teaching the child how to take care of plants. (4) I think face to face learning is very important, especially for interaction between students and teachers. We can ask questions directly and get immediate feedback. Also, it's easier to focus in class because there are fewer distractions than online. But I also think technology is helpful, so maybe combining both methods is a good idea. But personally, I prefer face to face because it feels more real and motivating.
