

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

This last chapter presents the important points from discussions in the study. Beside that, it also suggests some recommendations for the readers and for English lecturer at the Language Development Center

A. Conclusions

The result of this study among others :

1. The violating maxim the most or often violated by the students is violating maxim of quantity with a total 37 of 53 dialogues or it is 69,8%.
2. According to the observations of researcher, the speakers can be said to violate the maxim can be seen how they respond or answer and also how to speak. If the speakers responded not in accordance with the principle of cooperation, then that's when they can be said to have violated the cooperative principle.
3. The writer also found some speaker's reasons in violating maxim, the violating maxim occurs because the speaker wants to give more the information to interlocutor in order to make the interlocutor understand with the speaker's explanation, it could also because the interlocutor does not focus in a particular situation, it could be because the speaker experienced doubt or anxiety in conveying information.

B. Suggestions

There are some suggestions for the readers, the writer suggests that this research could be developed by other researcher so that result can be maximal..

a. English Lecturers and Students

Based on the result of this research the writer suggests for the English Lecturers or students especially the Lecturer and students in the Language Development Center to make a good conversation as interaction in learning process. Because based on research conducted by the writer, the writer has found that some conversations are flout the maxim. The writer suggests that the lecturers should make students understand so the students will to understand easily with what the lecturer explain.

b. Further Research

The result of this research was far from being perfect. There are some aspects that have not been observed by the researcher. So the researcher suggests to the other researcher that they should be analyze the violating maxim in lecturer – students interaction and found the findings even more interesting. Because there are many interaction that can be used as a research about the use of violating maxim in the lecturer – students interaction.
