Appendix II Research Instrument

Directions:

Change these passages by using technique of paraphrase that you know (change the sentences or words' structure without changing the original meaning).

1. Europeans observe that Americans schedule everything except time for relaxation. This is particularly true of American executives, who drive themselves hard often at the expense of their families and their health. Americans have fewer holidays and take shorter vacation than Europeans. Many Europeans do not accept working in weekends or holidays, they reserve these times to themselves and their families.
2. Baronia Estimated said that marriage seekers place half of Indolink to find their partners. Baronia also said Indolink allowed them to search in India and in expatriate communities around the the world rather than by family. For example, Sandeep Gupta, a young computer programmer from Toronto is seeking a wife through Indolink.
3. A man pleaded not guilty to residential burglary even though he switched furniture with his neighbors when they were not at home. The man told the court that he was drunk when he decided to switch furniture when he thought they moved and abandoned their furniture.
4. The global reach of the internet is helping expatriate citizens of India find marriage partners. Most of Indians prefer their partners to come from the same region, have similiar religious, and socioeconomic background. For young Indians who live abroad, searching for a suitable wife or husband become quite difficult. They often must depent on their families back home india to find them mates
5. Of the more than 1000 bicycling deaths every years, three-fourth are caused by head injuries. Half of those killed are school-age children. One study concluded that wearing a bike helmet can reduce the risk of head injury by 85 percent. In an accident, a bike helmet absorbs the shocks and cushion the head. From "bike Helmets: Unused Lifesavers," Consumer Reports (May 1990):38
